Various U.S. firms	Various	From time to time Fasken Martineau DuMoulin LLP has, or has had, informal arrangements with a small number of U.S. firms the objective of which is to foster relationships that may lead to cross-border referrals, such as introducing each other's partners in similar practice areas to one another, attempting to organize joint presentations to each other's clients, jointly authoring articles on particular areas of law from Canadian and US perspectives, and the like. These relationships involve no revenue sharing or referral fees and are even more informal than the arrangement with Perkins Coie LLP described above.
